

How about focusing on reducing the wasteful spending in this state rather than increasing taxes and failing to reduce deficits. The liberals running this state have absolutely convinced my wife and I to leave this state as soon as I retire in a couple of years. Between the taxes and the gun control, we are done with the 33 years we have spent living in this god-awful place.

David Karchner